Dear Customer,

By the time you receive this letter, Thanksgiving and Black Friday will have passed. I hope you and yours had a wonderful day. We hope you can stop by Bison Merc for Unveiling on Monday, November 27th. We will have the store open and treats available. At the moment the weather forecast looks mild and breezy.

Bison Merc has Christmas Trees in stock, but availability is limited.

Bison Merc is also refurbishing our bedroom section. By all accounts the renovations should be completed by Unveiling.

Pearl Harbor Day is Thursday, December 7th. Christmas this year lands on a Monday, December 25th of course. Our current thoughts are that Bison Merc will be closed the following Tuesday and Wednesday so we can spend some time with our families apart from dishes and cleanup.

December features a few celestial events, and hopefully some precipitation. December 3rd will be a Supermoon. December 13th is the peak of the Geminids Meteor Shower, among the best of the year and with the New Moon on the 18th, should be very visible weather permitting. December 21st marks the Solstice.

Thank You for shopping local, and shopping with us at Bison Mercantile.

Sincerely,

Jerome Berryman
